

Welcome Back Hankey Families!

We're excited to see our Hawks back on campus this year! With your financial help, the IB program will continue to enrich our students at Carl Hankey Elementary and Middle School. IB exposure at the elementary and middle school prepares our students for the Capistrano Valley High School IB program. Carl Hankey is one of the few elementary schools offering a language program, providing students with an early start in multilingual education. IB middle schoolers are 34% more likely to take advanced courses in high school. In high school, the acceptance rate of IB students into universities is significantly higher!

What is CHIEF?

CHIEF is the Carl Hankey International Education Foundation, a 501c3 nonprofit organization created to support Hankey's IB programs, a requirement of the IB World organization to qualify Hankey K-8.

The IB program at Hankey costs $45,000 every year. This money raised pays for elementary Spanish classes and middle school design classes as well as IB materials and teacher training. The Carl Hankey community pays for these programs ourselves through CHIEF. We need to raise $125 for each student to keep the IB programs going and prospering.

How can you help?

CHIEF has fundraisers throughout the year to raise this money. This includes direct donations like this one, the fall Hawk Trot, and acquiring corporate and small business donations. Your support in these fundraisers helps us reach our yearly goal and is appreciated.

By donating today, any amount helps, you're actively helping the IB program and our students succeed. Companies will match your donation, which will double your impact. Ask your company for donations.

Thank you for your generosity and supporting our students,

Paul Charron , CHIEF President, president@carlhankeyfoundation.org
